

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 1

“This house would withdraw state funding from RTE.”

DATE: Thursday, November 22nd 2007.
HOST: The L&H
CONTACT: Eoin Martin (+353 87 9807549)
MEET AT: 18.30 @ The Arts Café, Arts Block
START: 19:00

PROPOSITION

TCD Hist: McNiffe & Byrne

(1) _____

(9) _____

UCD Law: Ó hUiginn & Connell

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) DCU: Lorena Von Gordon

(7) UCD Law: David Roche

OPPOSITION

TCD Hist: Allen & Sherry

(2) _____

(10) _____

TCD Hist: Kissane & Kenny

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) NUIG Lit & Deb: Sean Butler

(8) TCD Hist: Daniel Curry

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 2

“This house would legalise and regulate casinos.”

DATE: Sunday, 25th November 2007.
HOST: QUB Law Society
CONTACT: Cahal Carvill (+44 7749 446839)
MEET AT: 14:00 @ The Black & White Hall, Queen’s University
START: 14:30

PROPOSITION

UCC Philosoph: Haverty & Frennet

(1) _____

(9) _____

King's Inns: Daly & O'Hanlon

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) NUIG Lit & Deb: Dan Colley

(7) TCD Hist: David Perry

OPPOSITION

King's Inns: Byrne & Fagan

(2) _____

(10) _____

UCC Philosoph: Doyle & Ward

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) QUB Law: Chris Eastwood

(8) UL Deb U: Tomás McCarthy

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 3

“This house believes Bertie deserves better pay than Bush”

DATE: Monday, 26th November 2007.
HOST: The Honorable Society of the King’s Inns
CONTACT: Barry Glynn (+353 87 9492349)
MEET AT: 18:30 @ The King’s Inns
START: 19:00

PROPOSITION

L&H: Pigeon & McAndrew

(1) _____

(9) _____

TCD Hist: Fenlon & Breathnach

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) NUIG Lit & Deb: James Hope

(7) L&H: Stephen Boyle

OPPOSITION

NUIG Lit & Deb: McGrogan & Emmet

(2) _____

(10) _____

TCD Phil: Gordon & Healy

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) TCD Hist: Tim Smyth

(8) UCC Law: Eoghan McSwiney

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 4

“This house would introduce an ombudsman for the legal profession.”

DATE: Tuesday, 27th November 2007.
HOST: The University Philosophical Society, Trinity College.
CONTACT: Orla Gordon (+353 87 2798360)
MEET AT: 18:30 @ The Graduates Memorial Building (GMB)
START: 19:00

PROPOSITION

TCD Phil: Grey & Curran

(1) _____

(9) _____

TCD Law: O'Mahony & Thuillier

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) King's Inns: Elizabeth O'Brien

(7) UCD L&H: Niamh McEvoy

OPPOSITION

King's Inns: Flanagan & Victoria

(2) _____

(10) _____

UCD Law: McGuire & Carter

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) UCC Philosoph: Conor O'Brien

(8) L&H: Janine Ryan

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 5

“This house would introduce a quota system for female political participation.”

DATE: Thursday, 29th November 2007
HOST: Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
CONTACT: Pushpak Gupta (+353 86 4051642)
MEET AT: 18:30 @ RCSI
START: 19:00

PROPOSITION

TCD Phil: Gaffney & Lyden

(1) _____

(9) _____

King's Inns: Bruen & Thuillier

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) IPLS Belfast: Conor Houston

(7) L&H: Jodie Jane Tingle

OPPOSITION

RCSI: Al Hadeedi & Henderson

(2) _____

(10) _____

L&H: Brady & Sheehy

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) L&H: Martina O'Brien

(8) SADSI: Brian Harley

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 6

“This house regrets choosing Pervez Musharaf as an ally in the War on Terror.”

DATE: Sunday, 2nd December 2007.
HOST: UCC Philosophical Society
CONTACT: Emer Harrington (+353 87 6750308)
MEET AT: 13:00 @ Old Bar, UCC.
START: 13:30.

PROPOSITION

UCD Law: Cranley & Martin

(1) _____

(9) _____

TCD Phil: Faller & Devlin

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) L&H: Ian Boyle-Harper

(7) King's Inns: Luke Ryder

OPPOSITION

UCC Philosoph: Stanley & Sadlier

(2) _____

(10) _____

NUIG Lit & Deb: McNally & Kelly

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) L&H: Michael Conroy

(8) DCU: Greg Bowler

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 7

“This house would support a GAA players strike.”

DATE: Monday, 3rd December, 2007.
HOST: College Historical Society
CONTACT: Chris Kissane (+353 87 6111215)
MEET AT: 18:30 @ The Graduates Memorial Building (GMB)
START: 19:00

PROPOSITION

UCD Law: O'Rourke & Williams

(1) _____

(9) _____

TCD Hist: Gallagher & Mulligan

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) L&H: Hugh O'Connor

(7) Cadets: Cathal Daly

OPPOSITION

UCC Law: Ó Corráin & Hale

(2) _____

(10) _____

L&H: Kinsella & Mountjoy

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) TCD Phil: Sinead Waldron

(8) NUIG Lit & Deb: Áine Mulloy

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*

THE IRISH TIMES DEBATE 2007-2008

Convenor: Ciarán Lawlor

Second Round – Heat 8

“This house would not support the EU Reform Treaty.”

DATE: 4th December, 2007
HOST: UCD Law Society
CONTACT: David Roche (+353 85 7246061)
MEET AT: 18:30 @ The Arts Café, Arts Block
START: 19:00

PROPOSITION

UCD Law: Hartigan & Hastings

(1) _____

(9) _____

UCD Law: Thuillier & Aherne

(3) _____

(11) _____

(5) TCD Phil: Joe McCaffrey

(7) UCD Law: David Sweetman

OPPOSITION

TCD Hist: Curry & Farragher

(2) _____

(10) _____

L&H: O'Meara & Kelly

(4) _____

(12) _____

(6) RCSI: Emer O'Connor

(8) King's Inns: Shaun Smyth

Teams should note that no swapping is permitted in the Second Round of this competition and competitors may not organise swaps amongst themselves.

*Given the reduced number of participants in each debate and the importance of giving adequate time to any replacement teams, a punitive fine system will be in place in relation to withdrawals: less than 72 hours notice of a team or individual withdrawing from the competition will result, at the discretion of the Convenor, in a fine of €100/£70 being imposed on the Society in question.
Notice must be given by phone to +353 87 0694014.*